Talroo Explains Why Find.Jobs is a Great Partner

Job Seekers With Intent

Find.jobs is dedicated exclusively to attracting job seekers. “Not every partner is focused exclusively on the jobs vertical. Find.jobs is,” said Barry Klein, Director of alliances at Talroo. This allows Find.jobs to deliver candidates with real intent.

Higher Conversion Rate

Find.jobs’ unique approach is reflected in the quality of the candidates. “Find.jobs’ job seekers complete applications above the network average,” said Barry.

Great Communication

“The communication that we have with them is beyond most partners. We have weekly calls to check in, and the Find.jobs team thinks creatively. We go beyond performance and metrics and discuss new ways we can work together. They’re always exploring different ways to expand,” said Grant Phillips, Senior Partnership Strategist at Talroo.

Consistent Quality

The majority of traffic on Find.jobs websites is from the USA.
